“ First I would like to send my condolences to the family I went to grade school and high school with Kim. Although over the years we have lost touch a few times we have seen each other and laughed about different stories (probably some of the same ones) but acted like not much time had passed (even though it was years) since we last seen each other.

I will just generalize our stories.. How she made me laugh which in turn made herself laugh too!! Kim did not like to be told what to do.. Not by the nuns at St. Adalberts or any of the teachers at Woodward and when one of them would "try" to do such a thing... Lol. You can just picture this curly haired girl with big glasses (because that's what we wore back then...) sliding down her nose not tolerating any of it and speaking her mind!! I could only sit there (especially at St. Adalbert) and be a nervous wreck for both her and myself! Lol she was acting all "hard" and then all of a sudden she would look at me and she would push her glasses up and get that smirky smile going and then when we would talk about it she would get all fired up all over again and then at the end we would sit there and laugh about it!!! As I'm sitting here typing this I can get a visual of her and remember doing this like it was yesterday even though it was 25+years ago!

God bless all of you!

I just thought I would share some special memories I had with your mom, sister & daughter!

You will all be in my prayers!
