“ Dear Bill, Erika, and Maureen, Lynn was a very important person in my life and I was sad to hear of her passing. She was creative in that professional way that so few creative people are. One of our first forays into friendship was a basket-weaving class. Her baskets rivaled anything a long-time craftsman could produce. I remember, too, her first entry into the Toledo Museum of Art's May Show where she won one of the prestigious awards with her weaving. And wow, could she cook (and bake and garden, and, well, you know all these things), and your home was always beautiful, yet comfortable and inviting. I remember when you sanded and bleached your wood floors at your River Road house. Lynn would take on anything for beauty. She was one of the most interesting and alive friends of my life, and I have missed her friendship over the many years that have passed, but I have never forgotten it nor all of you. My thoughts are with you. Sue Muller

“ Lynn and I were friends since Kindergarten at OLPH. We enjoyed great times at McAuley High School especially the fun week at Devils Lake our senior year with a group of McAuley friends. Our husbands and kids expanded our depth of friendship over the years and our trip to Ireland was a wonderful highlight! We loved our kids and grandkids together and had many fabulous long talks in our swimming pool watching the clouds float by on glorious sunny days! Lynn will always be present in my heart and thoughts. Mike and I and our family will hold on to fond memories of Lynn forever!

“ Lynn and I spent a number of years as close friends in high school and college. I love the picture you chose her--her wonderful smile! It brings back memories of lightness and fun from those times. The beautiful memorial you wrote for her makes it clear that she lives in your hearts. I wish you comfort at this sad time.

“ Our hearts are saddened for you Bill, Erika and Family. We first met Lynn at the Weaver's Guild, and felt honored to purchase her beautiful white runner with the colors of the rainbow running through it. It's a special memory because of her kindness, way she shared her enthusiasm for living and sweet energy.

“ Lynne was one of my sisters best friends at McAuley. Although I was quite a bit younger, I remember her and that group of girls that had so much fun together. The time they spent at the lake. All stories I heard about for years. Lynnie had such a sweet, artistic soul and I know she will be missed terribly by her family. All our thoughts and prayers to you all.

“ Lynn and I were McAuley classmates and friends. After high school, our lives went in different directions, intersecting again briefly when our daughters were friends in high school. I missed seeing Lynn at our reunion; it would have been great to reconnect. One of many fond memories was of Lynn the seamstress. I remember her laying out a piece of fabric on her bedroom floor and cutting out a garment without a pattern. The finished dress or jacket turned out perfect and very "Lynn". She was an artist and free spirit. I send her family my thoughts, prayers, and sincere sympathy. May you find comfort in your family, friends, and wonderful memories. Barb (Bender) Bauer '65

“ Lynn and I were classmates at McAuley but it seems like I've known her longer than that. She was always a smiling, bubbly sprite. Just full of energy and so kind. Keeping you all in my prayers.

“ Dear family,
Lynn was a McAuley HS classmate in the class of '65. I remember her as a sweet and fun person who was smart and talented. She was a dear friend as well! She will be missed, I'm sure by her beloved family and circle of friends from past and present. I will be out of town for a wedding on the weekend of her memorial service; so sorry to miss it. She'll be in my and many of our classmates' thoughts and prayers. Rose (Bates) Kandik

“ I knew Lynn in high school and the picture that you chose is exactly how I remember her. She had a great laugh. We spent time "cruising " the McDonald's parking lot on Bryne road where Lynn would run in and get a cup filled with pickles. Lynn's mom was are chaperone at Devil's lake the summer before our senior year. Madras shirts and dances at the Devils lake pavilion were part of that week. My sympathies to all of her family and I hope her laugh remains in your heart. Beth Kantner '65

“ Lynn and I had a wonderful coming-of-age experience in our early 20s. We traveled all over Europe for 3 months--mostly in the pouring rain--backpacking, staying in youth hostels, and traveling place to place with our first class Eurorail passes. Backpacking and hostels was pretty rudimentary, but the train passes were luxurious. We finally saw sunshine when we crossed over into Italy. It was a magical moment of seeing the colors of sunrise on the waters all around Venice. We ate, we laughed, we tried to flirt but were not that great at it. And if any guy had responded we wouldn't have known what to do. We were young and out on an amazing adventure. I thank Lynn for those memories, for her spunk and fearlessness. She was a wonder to know.
My condolences to her family.

“ Dear Bill and girls.
Lynn was a dear friend of mine from Mc Auley. So many fun times we had together. She was special: Devil's lake: cruising McDonald's; Little GTO; her art; so many warm memories. I was out of country or would have been at her memorial. She was special.
