“ Mike was my father in law. From day one, he never treated me like that. He treated me like the daughter he always wished he had. I am so grateful to have been loved so much by him. He was a wonderful grandfather to our son Thomas. I will miss watching him fall asleep on our couch and Thomas smacking him awake. I will miss that no matter what weird show Thomas was into, he would watch it with him. Every time Papa Mike came to visit, Thomas ran to him with such pure excitement. I loved Mike so much. We were so lucky.

“ I have so many great memories of Mike. We first met when I was in college and Mike hired me to work in Loss Prevention at JCPenney. It didn't take long for us to become friends. We had shared interests in computers and astronomy. I remember us both spending hours on dial up internet in the 1990's chatting with people around the world. Work never seemed like work when we were working on projects. I remember several times that we would meet at the store after hours and run camera wires for internal investigations. We'd be climbing up ladders and opening the ceiling tiles to run the wires across the store. One time he had received some type of bonus at work and he shared it with me. He told me to use it on something fun, not for paying bills. He was always generous like that. He came to my wedding on his birthday and joked he'd always remember my anniversary date. I remember lots of trips to the Pizza Hut buffet and Golden Corral when he was in Chillicothe throughout the years. Even when he moved back to Toledo, the first time I stopped while traveling through, we met at Pizza Hut and had a good meal. We tried to keep up throughout the years with a phone call now and then. They only happened a couple of times a year but we'd spend over an hour catching up when we talked. He texted two or three months ago to remind me about the Field of Dreams baseball game between New York and Chicago just in case I wanted to watch it with my kids. He was a proud grandpa and told me he visited his grandson as often as he could. Mike was many things to me throughout the years; a mentor, a role model, a friend. My thoughts are with the family as we mourn his loss, but I know we'll catch up again someday!

“ So deeply sorry for your loss! I have so many good memories of Mike and you Trish growing up on National Ave. Mike was so smart yet so funny, quirky and had such a kind heart. Some of the things he came up with were hilarious and made our teenage years so enjoyable. Trish when you and he clicked, that was it. Forever in love. He will truly be missed. Sending love and prayers to you and your family. Rest In Peace Michael!

“ Prayers for Trish, Christopher, Ryan, and family. Love that Mike Brown, my partner in crime at JCP. So many memories...we always journeyed through the worst snowstorms and ice just to catch a Cyclones or Chill hockey game. And, we were so excited to build our hockey trading card sets. You are loved by so many! Definitely left a piece of your heart with us. We will meet again! Bradman.
