“ I was in Fr. McLernan's class at DeSales in Lockport, NY for chemistry and physics. I remember him as a kind yet demanding teacher. After graduating from DeSales in 1961, I joined the Congregation of Holy Cross as a Brother. I've spent my life as a teacher also, both in New York City and Washington, DC and then in Uganda, East Africa. May he rest in peace with the Lord. Brother Alan Harrod, CSC,

“ Thank you Father McLernen for years of wonderful sermons at early Mass at Lumen Christi. You always gave me something to ponder for the day. I appreciate your years of service and sacrifice and providing so many with the sacraments to nourish our souls.
