“ Father Bill was a close friend of my parents, Gus and Barbara Link. He loved good food and good music and he shared that with my mom and dad. He loved fine wines and he shared that with my dad. I remember the wonderful get togethers at our house and remember the laughter and the singing. He was a great raconteur and was able to tell a joke or a story like no one else I know. He accomplished so many things in his life and was so proud to be in the Toledo Opera Chorus. He was a dedicated priest and teacher and was always with us through happy and sad times. He presided at my wedding and at my parents' funerals. He was family. I will never forget him and I will miss him.

“ Father Fisher was our priest at St Paschals in Taylor MI....he brought such joy and laughter to the parish and his Christmas Eve acapella version of Oh Holy Night during midnight mass was amazing. He was a big part of all of our lives in the parish. He and his dog Willie (named after William Shakespeare) were always together. RIP Father Fisher and God Bless You.

“ My brother Bill left the house at 18 to join the priesthood but he came back to perform our wedding and those of our children. Ours was his first wedding in 1963. He also married his nephew Bob (Tina) and nieces Denise (Mike) and Barb (Joe) over the years. Bill was also able to come home to christen our oldest grandson. He had a terrific voice especially when he sang Ave Maria. Over the years it gave us comfort knowing that he had a loving community in the parishes he was a part of since he was far from home.
He will be greatly missed.

“ There are so many memories. Fr. Bill always felt like a part of our family. He participated in weddings, funerals, anniversary parties, as well as regular evenings of listening to opera with my parents while he and my dad drank cognac. He was a marvelous human being, with so many different interests. From opera lover to military chaplain to a good and understanding teacher, and then all the leadership and good works he did as a pastor in Michigan. And we all loved his wicked sense of humor. We send condolences to his family and to the Oblates and to all the many others who were enriched by knowing him.

“ pastor at St. Joseph Parish, Monroe where I was a member. Fr. Bill endeared himself for his work and dedication to the poor and underprivileged of our county. Our parish was the first to adopt Habitat as our outreach ministry. With the help of his pastoral associate, Sr. Harriet Fitzmaurice, IHM and Carolyn Solomon IHM Associate. and other dedicated parishioners they initiated a Food Closet program for distribution of vital food products and a weekly dinner served every Wednesday. Soon after the other Monroe churches offered a dinner meal on other days of the week. Fr. Bill's work with the people in Monroe continues in other forms today. Fr. Bill left a heritage of good works and modeled for all the true spirit of "love of neighbor" especially love and service for the less fortunate. I am grateful to have served in some of these initiatives.

Sincerely, Joyce Durosko, IHM

“ The Priest who married us, served as our Priest for many years, and also who presided over the religious portion of my Navy retirement ceremony and reception in 2011, passed away last week. Rarely in my life have I ever been more privileged, spiritually uplifted, nor have I had feelings of personal acknowledgement, or benefitted so much from an association and friendship with anyone like that I had with Father Bill Fisher. He leaves a great legacy of many people who will say similar things and better, and who have gained in very many ways, including exceptional learning experiences, in depth guidance on many levels by his leadership, direction, and especially his incredible ability to show mercy, and provide peace to so many poor, unfortunate and even dejected people of our town and elsewhere. Feeling very sad today at his passing, but also very privileged and honored to have known him and thankful that so many of us have had such an example of devotion, compassion and sacrifice in our midsts. He will be very sincerely missed by us and also I'm certain also by very many others.

“ Father fisher was a very valuable mentor to me in my HS years at st. Francis HS in Toledo oh. He was one of my coaches when we formed the HS swimming team at sfs and built the pool and for me was the front door to a 45 year coaching career which he influenced at all levels . I am forever grateful to all he was in my life. One of the special treats he officiated at my wedding October 1973 . We are still married and yes we will celebrate our 48 anniversary this October. Thank father bill for all you do to help to shape me and inspire and support me in my life quest. Your admiring friend Peter d/veronica Malone

“ I was a student of Father Fisher.....I will always remember our playful debate about whether epic poems, such as Beowulf, could be written today. There was some laughing. He will be missed.

“ Father Fisher occasionally said Mass at my parish, St. Michael in Monroe, Michigan. He always set the altar servers at ease and was very playful with them, flicking water at them after washing his hands. He was truly a man of the world and I feel blessed for knowing him just a little bit.

A thankful servant of the Lord

“ Father Bill was the best. When my parents came to Monroe after getting married, St. Joe's church was doing mass in a school gym with folding chairs on account of church maintenance.

Father was so charismatic, so funny, and so engaging that they kept coming back and back and back.

And so it was Father Bill who baptized me and gave me my first confession.

He was an incredible man, a funny man, and had a great impact on my life. Praying for the repose of his soul.

“ Father Fisher was a interesting man! He got me to go to the opera to see Die Fledermaus, of course he bribed us with a couple extra points on our grade. He was a very smart and nice teacher and friend. My prayers to the Oblate Community for your loss.

“ Moving from Los Angeles to Toledo and becoming part of the St. Francis de Sales family and coaching staff was a defining moment for Barbara and myself. Fr. Fisher provided friendly advice to the newly weds. When the principal asked me for my advice on a spiritual adviser for the swim team "we" choose Fr. Fisher - why not choose a "fisher of boys". I have many memories of his loving advice over those four years.

“ As a new freshman swimmer Fr. Fisher taught us the traditions of the Team and of SFS as a school.

He taught me, through swimming, English class, and homeroom, how to set goals and work hard to achieve them. Also, how to laugh at ourselves along the way.

With his classroom teaching and character he exhibited, he assisted countless Knights in their path to adulthood.

Thank you Fr. Fisher
