

Alexandra Goins

July 24, 1992 - April 17, 2022

God brought Ali's soul home on Easter Sunday morning, his most sacred day. Alexandra Elisabeth Goins of Sylvania, Ohio was born July 24, 1992 at St Vincent's Medical Center, Toledo, Ohio, 6 minutes before her twin brother, Austin. Ali was taken from us tragically and suddenly on April 17, 2022. She was a mother to the love of her life, her Boogie, Jackson Donald Edward Goins, his only parent. He was her sunshine, the light of her whole world and "You Are My Sunshine" was her ode to him. Their bond was unbreakable; he loved his mommy so much.

Ali's heart was full beyond measure. She was kind and generous with everyone she knew. She had a pure heart of gold. Her smile and dimples were the essence of her soul. She was artistic and her voice resonated within us all, it was her passion. She expressed herself through her voice. It was melodic, soothing and comforting; like that of an angel that she is now. She loved her family and her friends, always wanting to include everyone that she could, never letting anyone leave without giving a big hug. She loved life. Ali had the purest heart of gold, she never saw anything but the good in others and refused to believe people were anything less.

Her family described Ali as having an unmeasurable amount of warmth, tenderness, and fondness for living creatures from all walks of life. Her love for animals of any kind was never ending. As a child she was always trying to bring home a stray dog, cat, squirrel, you name it; she would bring them home to nurture. Her latest was her dog Stella, her Stelly Belly.

Her Catholic faith is what she cherished and followed in her heart. She attended Catholic grade schools and then Northview High School. She also attended college of business. She loved being around her friends, and having a good time, and she never let you leave without a big hug, kiss and her “I love you’s” the same way she always ended her phone calls with her “I love you’s”. Ali could be a force of nature, magnetic. She was always surrounded by people that loved her. Her laughter was contagious. Mostly, Ali just loved life and wanted everyone to love life, too; laughing and telling jokes and bringing a smile to others' faces. Ali was always trying to help people, make them feel important, needed, loved, and included; always putting others before herself was her signature. Ali never expected that her life would ever be cut short by a senseless act of violence.

Left to carry on her legacy is her son Jackson Donald Edward Goins. Left to cherish her memory are her Mother, Amy Goins (Robert Brown) Father, Donald Goins (Carol Timmons). Her sister Alyssa (Donald Villarreal) and brothers Adam, twin brother Austin, brother Donny and nephew Donny Goins. Carols daughters, whom Ali considered sisters, Shana (Joshua) Bailey, Jane-L (Katy) Timmons, and nephews Colton and Dillon Bailey. Her Aunts: Kay Gifford, Jeane Swemba, Susan (Tim) Iorio, Laura (David) Rahanian, Lisa Armstrong, Cynthia (Charles) Skeens and her Uncles Michael Floyd and Patrick (Clare) Floyd; also her Aunts Dawn Keith, Desiree Goins, and Danette (Rich) Goins, and her special Aunt Sister Mary Corese Floyd, SND. and a vast number of cousins and friends who loved her dearly. She was preceded in death by her Maternal Grandparents Edward and Lois Floyd, Her Paternal Grandparents Donnelda Schlichting, and Donald Goins, her Uncle Dr. Edward Floyd and his wife Susan Floyd, her Uncle Darron Goins and her cousins Nicholas Iorio and Daniel Goins. Especially her beloved friend Leslie Shivley whom we know met her at the gates of Heaven. She also leaves behind her dog Stella, whom she considered her daughter.

This was a senseless and aggravated attack, from which Ali tried to escape, but succumbed to her injuries. Her life was cut so short and she will be dearly missed. We will always be left wanting more of Ali. May she reside in the choirs of the angels, guiding us throughout life with her comforting voice and warm soul. Donations will be accepted to GiveSendGo to provide a beautiful service in memory of Ali and for her son, Jackson's future.

Friends may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S Reynolds Rd. On Friday April 29, 2022 from 2-8 pm where a Scripture Service will be held at 4:00 pm. Family and friends will also be received at the mortuary on Saturday starting at 9:00 am until 10:00 am when the procession will leave for St. Joseph Catholic Church in Sylvania Ohio where the Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 am. Interment services will follow in Whitehouse Cemetery

“ Ali girl I am so sad that this senselessness has taken you away from everyone that loved you . Since the first time I met you you and I have always just laughed and laughed together. I will miss seeing you when I come to visit and texting you and getting a response 2 weeks later lol..look over all of us and Let us know that your around
. There's not a doubt in my mind that God took you to make you once of his Angels to watch over everyone you loved including Jackson. Fly high pretty girl. Love you ..till we meet again Sending all my love and prayers you Ali's entire family through this tragic time. And will continue praying in the days ahead that justice will be served as it should ...

I'm so broken inside...numb and in disbelief, I miss you horribly. This is so wrong to have to lay you to eternal rest. So young, so much life you have been robbed of. I'll never understand why!! I miss my little girl. Forever in my heart. Sing as the Angel you now are, as they have the best...Mommy loves you!!

“ *I'm struggling, as today we lay you to rest. I can't let go of my gorgeously beautiful, fun loving little girl. I'm not sure I can do this!! All the memories thru all the years I hold so near and dear to my heart. I'll never ever really be able to let you go, my crazy little Ali Bean. Mommy will always be here wondering why, how, .....and remembering all the great moments we shared from living room weekend movies, to Christmas's that were over the top, to Halloweens, and Thanksgivings, and so on. To just being family, that always mean't so much....It's so fitting that God took you from us on his most beloved day, Easter...that you were so loved by God to be brought home on his special day. You are my heart and soul, and I love you endlessly. Visit often, until I can be with you again my sweetheart and be sure to meet me when my time comes. Death won't be so hard to face, because I know I'll get to see you again. It's always hardest for the ones left behind. Your son is in loving hands always. He'll always know how much you love him, never ending!! Til I see you again my love,
Mommy*

*My sincerest sympathy. Just found out today . Just shocked & angry this happened to the sweetest beautiful young woman. I so enjoyed every time she came over to go "shopping" in my closets & jewelry boxes. Loved spoiling her.
Mt heart aches for you & the family. Please contact me anytime if you need anything or a shoulder.
Hugs*

“ I met Ali when I was in 4th or 5th grade and we attended Mary immaculate school together. I remember my first thought when I saw her the very first time was "she is gorgeous". I remember doing Christmas programs with her at Mary immaculate her voice was like an angel. Her and i talking about different things. She never made me feel different about myself even though I am autistic. She was a wonderful person and always smiled. She never let anyone pick on me or anyone else. She is very missed.

Amy and family, We are so very very sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter and sister, Ali. We know your heart is heavy with terrible sorrow and pain. Words are not enough to express how we feel for you. But know, though you can no longer be with Ali on this earth she will always be near you. She is at peace. She has no more pain, no more fear, no more struggles.
