“ I have lost a very dear friend and will miss her so much. Alys and I have shared many fun times of laughter, bridge, shopping, "ice cream" and just ture companionship. She was very special person and my heart is very sad. I know she is in a much better place but the selfsih part of me wants her back. May she rest in eternal peace and know that I will always remember and miss her.

Love and hugs,

Cindy

“ I was fortunate to be the person who prepared taxes for Alys for many years. In the last few years I made house calls and found her company to be both fun and she became a friend in addition to a respected client.

I will miss Alys and will remember her many witty stories and recollections.

My sympathy to her family.
