

Andrew McCarthy

March 27, 1985 - May 18, 2018

Andrew John McCarthy, age 33 of Toledo, passed away at home on May 18, 2018.

He was born to John McCarthy and Dawn Weideman on March 27, 1985. He was a graduate of St. John Jesuit High School where he was active in the Wrestling Program. After highschool, Andy moved to Chicago where he attended Loyola University. During his time in Chicago, Andy formed many special friendships with his TKE fraternity brothers. Post undergraduate, Andy decided to pursue his lifelong interest in law at the University of Toledo where he received his JD/MBA. Andy's life calling was to work as an attorney advocating for the rights of others. Andy worked as both a public defender and also started his own practice, Law Office of Andrew J. McCarthy.

According to the Honorable Judge Cook "Andy began his journey working to provide his clients not only legal representation but he also understood his role as a counselor at law. He poured his heart into each case and each client. His initial legal mentor was local attorney, Richard Hasbrook. He soaked up everything that he could. The legal mentorship evolved into courtroom partnership where they worked seamlessly to represent hundreds of indigent clients, giving them commendable legal representation that was routinely acknowledged by the court. Andy went on to prove himself as a worthy legal representative before many local judges in multiple jurisdictions building last friendships throughout the legal community. Recently, due to the skills, knowledge of resources and his legal reputation for working with the addicted population that Andy had built through his years of practice, he became the most recent addition to the Lucas County Drug Court Program as assigned Public Defender. Andy's addition to the program was in itself a valuable resource. Andy most recently lived out a career high moment of being part of a legal team representing a teen who was acquitted of a most serious of offenses. Andy was beyond grateful to have had the opportunity to work with and learn alongside local renowned defense attorney Ronny Wingate."

Andy was a member of the Toledo Bar Association where he was active in the annual Grid Iron Show.

Of the things Andy enjoyed most, spending time with friends and family was at the top of this list. His free time was often spent entertaining those he loved most through lively storytelling. Andy had a gift for always lighting up the room and making those around him feel heard and valued.

Andy was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Tom and Jane McCarthy; maternal grandparents, John and Judy Weideman and his uncle, Thomas Dixon. He is survived by his mother, Dawn Weideman; father, John McCarthy; sister, Erin (Patrick) McCarthy-Cline; brother, Michael McCarthy and his buddy and canine companion, Teddy; Aunts and Uncles Timothy (Josette) McCarthy, Jim (Diane) McCarthy, Raymond (Jennifer) McCarthy, Laura Dixon, Michael (Linda) Weideman, Ron (Nona) Weideman, Dana (Eric) Toth and dozens of cousins.

“ Thinking about you guys today and so sorry I couldn't make it in from Seattle. Andy was a great roommate to have when I was a shy freshman far from home. He helped me make friends and generally made life fun for everyone around him. He was such a good storyteller...I will never forget how he would put himself in completely ridiculous situations just so he had more hilarious stories to tell us at the end of the weekend. It's so cool that he took those talents and used them to defend the less fortunate. My family and I are praying for you all today and missing Andy.

“ Dear Dawn and John,
It is with tears in my eyes that I write to you. I have no idea of what you are going through now, as this is just too much sadness for parents to go through.
Andy was Mickey's first friend, and those Irish boys certainly got into their fare share of trouble. I have only good memories of Andy, and as I read all of the wonderful things he was doing, I know that you were both so proud of him.
My deepest sympathies to your entire family. I pray for peace to come to you, in the wonderful memories that he created.
God bless you Andy, rest in peace.

And was one of my favorite people. I first met him at the Toledo Municipal court where he was an public defender intern. He was a very hard and caring worker. He would fight for his clients to the end. I recently saw him at the Domestic Relations court where he was present on a case. He spoke of his love for his job and how it has been rewarding. I am going to miss his smile. I am praying that God will give you comfort at this time. Vanessa DV Advocate
