“ Ann Marie was a great neighbor and such a fine lady. She will be missed by my son and I. I always enjoyed chatting with her. She always took an interest in my son and I and she always shared her activities with her family that she was attending. I was so sad to hear of her passing. The family is in thought and prayer at this difficult time. With most sincere sympathy.##imported-begin##Jean Harantha and Andrew jeanandmax@aol.com##imported-end##

“ Ann's passing is a leaves a huge void for all of us who knew and loved her. Ann was an excellent nurse, very bright and caring for her patients and families. She was a true role model for nursing. Her friendship meant a great deal to me. I will miss our conversations and her deep devotion as a friend. I know she is with Jesus. With love and sympathy,

“ Ann Marie was my dear friend and mentor. She was my advisor and guide in my first nursing role at Mercy. We were classmates at Mary Manse and attended Marquette University together. Ann Marie was a kind and generous and giving person. She loved her family and friends more than herself and was always focused on the other person. She truly reflected the light of Christ. She will be greatly missed. With love, Janice##imported-begin##Janice Wittman wittman.jan@spcollege.edu##imported-end##

“ When I was a freshman at Marquette, away from my Toledo home for the first time, Anne Marie and her friend took me and my friend to Holy Hill (a Catholic Shrine in the hills west of Milwaukee) during the gorgeous autumn color season, then fed us a home-cooked meal. It was a wonderful break from the dorm and I have never forgotten her generosity. My sympathies to her family on your loss.
