“ My heart is breaking, Anna Rose was my friend through Immaculate Conception church in Toledo Ohio. I use to see her in church on Sundays, and would sometimes sit with her. She would be with Janet Hickey, another friend, going to the store or lunch and I would occasionally run into them. I remember years ago seeing her walk around the south end neighborhood close to her home/church. I remember how she told me that the Immaculate Conception Outreach at one time was a store that her parents owned. She was friendly, and outgoing.

“ It started as a Lenten act of kindness. I offered to take her to a doctor's appointment. Then it grew to over a decade of lunch and errands every Friday. We became good friends. Rest in peace Anna Rose! Thank you to her family who recognized that she could no longer manage by herself and stepped in to make sure she was safe and cared for. That's love in action! - Janet Hickey

“ Anna Rose always told me of her love for my Uncle Bunny. She was the godmother to my cousin, Debbie. We grew up in the same neighborhood and went to the same church. My family would shop in her family's store for incidentals. Rest in Peace Anna Rose, you are with your beloved Bob and your son, Gary.
