“ Wish I were with you right now, dear cousins. Your Mother was like an adopted Sister, much more than a first cousin. My tears have been many this week and I am so glad that I visited Anna Marie in November, having a 4PM wine before dinner each day. Thank you, God, for our last get together. I love you all and wish I was with you in person, but I am there in spirit. May every blessing fill today and tomorrow. Much love, Bernadette
