“ I met Anne several years ago and found out quickly that we were kindred spirits. She was such a sweet kind woman and for the brief time we knew each other , she became a special friend. She recently sent me a note while returning some books she borrowed , And I cherish that note now knowing it was the last correspondence I would have received from her. Anne, we will meet again in heaven! I will look forward to our reunion! May Anne’s family be comforted by our Lord and Savior and experience His presence in a special way during this time of grief. Fondly, Sue Bucher, Calvary Church, MAUMEE, OH

“ I so could hear you laughing as each one of your nieces and nephews spoke ~ you loved them all so much. Your legacy is far-reaching, and I have yet to fully grasp the full impact you have had on my life since 1977 up to, and including, when I saw you last at Hospice. Only you can understand me getting lost in Perrysburg....I laugh at the time we got lost coming home from Bowling Green that day, but it saddens me greatly too. I never did get to help you finish organizing the kid’s supply closet at church....I feel like this is day one, I guess because of the memorial service, so I just needed to tell you goodbye, and I can’t call or text you like I want to.....I picture you in Heaven, just beaming, and that brings me tears of joy. You will always be my heavenly angel sent from God. Brenda Jean loves you more than lots Anne O’Neill.

“ I love you, my sweet Anne....selfishly, I wished and prayed that you could have stayed. I can't even think about you not being in my life right now. I will miss your smile, your laugh, your unconditional love, your kindness, your advice, your encouragement, your sense of direction that equally matches mine, your Godly wisdom, discussion, and sharing of scripture, and being in the presence of your spirit and light; to name just a few things. My gentle truth-speaker....I am tremendously blessed by the privilege to be your friend and do life with you....with courage, grace, strength, and steadfast faith and reliance on God ~ you fought the good fight, my friend....you were given the ultimate healing! I will see you soon, sister of my heart... ❤️

With much love and sympathy to Jeff and Anne's sisters and their family,
