“ Charles (Tony's) was my mother's hairdresser for many years at Charles of the Windsor. My heart is sad that he is gone; he was very good to her and to all of us. Peace and prayers for his family.###imported-begin##Sr Sally Bohnett sallybohnnett@gmail.com###imported-end##

“ I so very much enjoyed having Tony as a resident of Swan Creek. It was a daily comfort to say good morning to him as he frequently sat in the front lounge before breakfast. He was one of the few residents who everyone noticed when he was not here and welcomed him back when he returned. We are so lucky to have had Tony here. Thank you for sharing Tony with us.###imported-begin##Deb Brisbin###imported-end##
