“ Sending our thoughts and prayers to family. Great memories of your Dad and your Mother as my neighbors in Toledo. Your Dad was always getting a deal on stuff for his business. He used our garage here in Columbus for storage of great purchase. They both are missed.

“ I love this picture of your dad. What great memories growing up. From softball at CYO, stopping for ice cream at Netty's with Apollo in the back seat, the numerous sleepovers. Much love for the Maus family. Thank you for being a huge part of mine.

Artie was such a kind, thoughtful, respectful person. We had so much fun and wonderful memories of our days in the Old West End dancing at their home with Artie's parents, watching Artie eat his steak RAW (ugh), and laughing. He is very proud of his daughters, you inherited good genes from your Mom and Dad. We've lost a wonderful human being. Hugs and Prayers. Sincerely, Elaine Knight-Hill
