“ Our heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your mother. Barb was a good friend most of our lives until work moved us away from Toledo. I remember her as my baby sitter many years ago, then the many good times we had together as adults with her and your dad. We miss seeing you all and share your sadness.

Please keep in touch.

“ Gladys, Linda, Shelly, Oh my, I can't begin to tell you how I feel, your Mom and I were friends for 40 years. We sent thru so much together. We have both laughed and cried, shared good times and bad times. She meant to much to Chuck. She had a wonderful life, she had a husband who adored her and the three of you, and her grandchildren she loved so very much. Our prayers are with you, she is with your Dad and Norma and all her friends.

We will see you this evening, and we will be at the funeral. Love all of you.##imported-begin##Linda & Chuck McGranahan##imported-end##
