“ Mom you may no longer be here but i know you are when we need you like always. Tell everyone that you are there with now that you have missed for so long we miss them and we will always miss you. Just know I will be talking to you everyday Im sure Justine and Carlie and Rachel and John and Dianna will also be talking to you. I know you are in a good place and dont hurt anymore. Thank you for makeing all the final call on every thing so I did not have to even though I would have if need . I hope the last few weeks was as nice for you as it was for us. Tell grandma and grampa foley we love and miss them. We will be togther again sooner or later. You are missed and we all love you and always have. Also mom thank you for making me who I am today a good mom with grate children and not to bad grand childern. I sit back and think about when i was toung and you and i would do our trips wvery week to down town toledo and have lunch at the woolworth counter and dad and the other 3 kids would go on trips and tou and i would stay together and do thing or not but just being with my kom was enough for me. I always could sence when something was wrong and now I sence you are happy and pain free and are enjoying with all you have lost over the years.Do me a faver if they have a casino there grab Rick and you and him go and win big tell him we all miss him also. All of our love now forever and always. I miss you. Love ya Brenda

“ Thinking of you, and hoping you are in peace living the life as you so wanted it to be here on Earth. I'll always remember walking through your door and you treating me as Family as if I always was. Thank you for allowing me to stay when I truly had no place else to go! Thank you for being my protector, and confident when needed, knowing that we both were in similar situations. I and your children should all be internally grateful, for all the sacrifices you made in staying the Matriarch of the Family, through so many of your own personal struggles. I know I am, and always will. You'll be sadly missed by many! Rest in peace Barb.

Sincerely,

Bonnie
