“ My heart goes out to the family of Ms. Barbara Russell, I was sad when I first heard of her passing, but in my heart I know she is rejoicing in the LORD and all his glory. We grieve for her today but know that she is in a much better place. I just pray that through it all that when it is our time we have fulfilled our lives as she did in raising her children, helping others and doing it all in GODS appointed time. I want to be ready...I will be praying for her family and my friends.....Love you..and God Bless###imported-begin###Robin C. Shy robinbigbird02@aol.com###imported-end##

“ All I knew was that when Jerry's grandmother called, he had to go! Your strength, perseverance, wisdom, and genuine care for others shines bright in your grandson, Jerry, to this day. I remember when you made sure that I rested before heading home after fraternizing with Jerry one evening. You always made sure that those around were taken of. It was a pleasure meeting you and knowing you. Your light will forever shine in all of those who you have ever met. You will be missed. With nothing but love, Jerry's line brother, Sidney.##imported-begin##Sidney Bailey IV

“ I am so sorry to hear about Barb. I was the first person to take care of her when she started dialysis. She always told people if it weren't for me and Sally she would not have come back for dialysis. She helped new patients adjust to dialysis and was the "big sister" that others needed. Barb was such a joy to take care of and so fun to be around. She made work bearable for the staff when she saw it was a rough day. I will always remember the diet cokes I would find she had sneaked into my car. She knew I loved my diet coke. She will always have a special place in my heart. I can still see her walking in the unit in in Pittsburgh attire. That was the nickname we gave her on day one and the one she will always be remembered by.##imported-begin##Deb Smith of Innovative Dialysis##imported-end##

“ I met her only ONE time, yet the proof of her kindness, her love, her priorities in life has always been evident, through the life of my friend - her grandson, Jerry.

She has a great legacy in him...

THANK YOU, Ms. Russell for so willingly devoting your life to give my friend such a wonderful opportunity to experience & become the BEST##imported-begin##Bernard Drew##imported-end##

“ Jerell, Jerry, and Taira,

We are so saddened by the news of Barb's passing. She was a such a nice, generous lady that I remember had nothing but tons of love for all of you. Know that she and all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. And also be comforted to know that she is happy and free in the arms of our Lord.
