“ What shocking news - to have discovered my precious friend and confidant passed in April. Numerous memories flood my thoughts as I step into the harsh reminder life this side of our eternal reward is temporary. I am forever thankful God arranged our paths in life to cross via Lucas County Information Services in 1998! Barb exuded the qualities of true friendship. The opportunities to be supportive of one another in various situations became the cement of our friendship. There was NEVER judgment nor criticism spoken when baring my soul - genuine empathy took its place at every turn. Truly, Barb was a giant in my life when life hit hard! On more than one occasion, a heartfelt greeting card was received via USPS offering encouragement after a soul baring interaction took place. When one has experienced the friendship she offered me, one has truly received the most precious gift ever. My heartfelt sorrow is extended to each one having the privilege of calling her mother, wife, sister, sister-in-law, or friend. May the undeniable peace of God bring deep comfort to each of us as we grieve her passing.

“ I only knew Barbara briefly, as I assisted with her care during her final days. She was a brave, amazing, loving woman even during those final hard days. God gained a beautiful Angel. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. You are a wonderful, loving family.
God Bless,
Amy
