Beatrice

Beatrice Holley passed away Saturday March 8, 2008 at the Kingston Care Center, Sylvania, Ohio. She was born in White Plains, Kentucky on July 31, 1922 to Ellis and Effie Hendrix.

Bea's main focus in life was nurturing her family and providing unconditional love. No matter how little she had, she always wanted to share. You could never visit her without being offered something to eat or drink.

Bumble Bee, as she was affectionately known, will be sadly missed by her son, James R. (Debra) Holley, Jr.; daughter, Penny (Emil) Marks; grandchildren, Robert (Lynn) Johnson, Debra (Robert) Navarre, Cheryl (Kevin) Byrne, Holly L. Urbanus, Erin (Matt) Deiners and Eric J. Holley; great-grandchildren, Chelsea and Rachel Johnson, Robert and Janet Navarre, Kevin and John Byrne, Garrett, Kayla and Grace Deiners and beloved sister, Flora M. Bower of Laporte, Indiana; nephews Herman E. (Barbara) Bower, South Bend, Indiana and Terry D. Bower Laporte, Indiana. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband James R. Holley and daughter, Janet Kwiatkowski.

Friends may call at the Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd., on Tuesday from 2-8pm. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday beginning at 10am. in the mortuary followed by interment in Riverside Cemetery, Maumee. Memorials may take the form of contributions to Hospice of Northwest Ohio.

The family sincerely thanks the caregivers and staff of Kingston and Hospice of Northwest Ohio for their compassionate and loving care of "Miss Bea" and for the kindness shown to the family. We are also thankful for all of our friends who kept her in their prayers and thoughts, many of you sending cards and making phone calls. You have given us comfort during this difficult time.
