“ Dear Ones, I first met Becky when she was in high school. ....she was always a breath of fresh air, so full of life, yet a wonderful peace about her. Becky was there to comfort me at the loss of my son. I consider it a privilege to have called her my friend. She will always have a special place in my heart. God bless you all and may your many dear memories bring smiles to warm your heart.

“ We first met Rebecca when the family, Lawrence, Rebecca, Skyler and Gillian lived in Hood River, Oregon and have truly missed their presence here from the very day they relocated back to California. Meeting Rebecca for the first time was like meeting up with a best friend you felt you had known forever. Her easy style, warm genuine heart and eagerness to gather friends around was a gift not many possess. She was an inspiration to all who knew her and her memory will stand the test of time. Our sincere condolences go out to the family at this time.
