

Billie Kay Detzer

November 28, 1931 - September 4, 2012

Billie Kay Detzer age 80 of Toledo, passed away Tuesday September 4, 2012 in St. Luke's Hospital. She was a graduate of Libbey High School and received her cosmetology license. She was also an avid Ohio State Buckeye fan.

Billie was preceded in death by her husband James and brother Ronald Winebrenner. She is survived by her daughters Kay (Dan) Lubinski and Kim May; grandchildren Hollie (Mike) Potter, Amanda (Mike) Laursen, James Detzer and Tiffany May; great-grandchildren Hunter and Kennedy Potter, Julian and Havana May and James Jr. and Jacob Detzer.

There will be no visitation and services will be private. Memorials may take the form of contributions to the Toledo Humane Society. Arrangements by Coyle Funeral Home (419) 865-1295.

Tribute Wall

“ So sorry for your loss, you can never really find the right words... Hope you are all doing well. ##imported-begin## Sandy and Steve ##imported-end##

September 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ So sorry to hear of your passing on Billie. To all the Detzer family... She was definitely one of a kind, love her then and now and always for such uniqueness. She made a memorable impression on my life forever. Glad to have met and known her. God's peace to the family and I will sign this the way she would remember me. Love, Fisch. ##imported-begin## Veronica Fiischer verAKAveronica@aol.com ##imported-end##

September 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Old south end neighbor, Burroughs and Libbey classmate. ##imported-begin## Lee Conger maclee@centuryInk.net ##imported-end##

September 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM