“ I am so sorry for Brandons passing he was an amazing kid and i was so lucky to have met him. Theres not a day that i didnt see him that i wasnt laughing at something he said. He knew how to put a smile on everyones face. I couldnt walk by your house without stopping to talk to him and have a good laugh. He will never be forgotten and forever missed. He is in a better place now and watching over everyone.##imported-begin##Nicole Heyman##imported-end##

“ Cyndi and Drew,
You are in our prayers. Brandon was a very good friend to Ronnie and Kaitlin and there are many fond memories that will be cherished always. There was a never a dull moment when they would get together. Find comfort in knowing that he's in a better place and in the best of health. If there's ever anything any of us can do, just let us know. We will be here for you.##imported-begin##Gerber Family kati3brook3@yahoo.com##imported-end##

“ I am extremely sorry to hear about the loss of Brandon. I remember him as a young waterboy when I played football during my elementary/jr high years. He was a great, funny, energetic kid whose family was fairly close to mine. We also share an Uncle. My prayers will continue to go out to Brandon and the Gallagher family. He is now truly in a better place, and I pray that God takes this time to bring his family, friends, and those who knew him together for emotional support and to celebrate the life that Brandon lived. God Bless.##imported-begin##Scott Williams Jr.##imported-end##

“ I was an Assistant Principal at Arlington Elementary when Brandon was in school. I remember some of the medication he took and how he wasn't always "thrilled" about taking them. I remember Mom sometimes had to encourage him. He always had friends around him and was always wanting to do everything everybody else did. That boy could play kickball like nobody's business and he was passionate about being fair and following the rules. I have fond memories of Brandon and am sad at his passing. God Bless. “ Brandon buddy, I only knew you for a year or so but your character was so loveable and friendly that it feels like I have known you forever. I had just talked to you just a week or so ago while you were helping me with Sheri's motion light (for free)and we were attempting to drink a couple of frozen beers from your truck! I will always remember you, you made quite an impression, and you are a heck of a worker, I say "ARE" because i am sure you are working for someone up stairs!! Love ya man, will miss you at the bon fire! My heart goes to Cyndi and Drew. Jay Dowg###imported-begin###Jay Pflgebraar jerry.pflgebraar@rexam.com###imported-end###

“ Cyndi and Drew-I just want both of you to wake up from the nightmare you are living in and have you go back to your "real life"-- I'm so sorry I can't make that happen for you!!!! The only comfort I can give now is I know Brandon is kickin'it with some people he truly loves to be with and he doesn't have a worry in the world while he's doing it!! I'm sure he's driving that golf cart like crazy with a can of corn in his hand and there isn't one thought of stomach pains, sugar levels or PFT's!!! Brandon grew to be an amazing man with a boyish smile who loved with all his heart and you should always be proud to say you are his mom and brother because he will always be in my heart--along with the hearts of two very special little girls I know!!###imported-begin###Stacie K tsmaski@bex.net###imported-end##
