“ I was one of the lucky ones, to have known Bruce for my entire life. Growing up two doors down, I will never ever forget the countless times, hearing his one of a kind laugh as he chatted with one of the neighbors, and knowing Bruce was nearby. To know Bruce was to love Bruce. No matter what he was doing, he would always make time to talk to me and make me laugh. The father-son canoe trips, the cookouts, watching hockey in the basement, I can still see Bruce waving as I look over and he is mowing the lawn; memories I'll never forget. I'll never take for granted being so lucky to have grown up a couple doors down from Bruce and his equally wonderful family, Lyn, Amy, Craig and Todd. Everyone should be so lucky.

I take great pleasure hearing my mom talk about some of her last memories with Bruce, dancing to Twist and Shout at my wedding in 2014, before this unfair disease slowly took Bruce.

My heart goes out to Lyn, Amy, Craig, Todd, and the rest of his family. There will never be another Bruce.

Sending my love, prayers and gratitude,
Joe Pflgebraar, my wife Christina, and children, Maddox, Cameron, and Kate
