“ You were like the biggest brother yes you were moms brother but we shared 62 years together as family you did more for me than any other family member. When visiting and vacation you were there and now you slipped away. Now I'm worried for those you've left behind. I love you bob

“ This hurts my heart ... even though we seldom saw each other as adults (reunions) I have wonderful memories of our childhood, when our family was huge and there were picnics and gatherings ... kids everywhere. Bobby was an imp, always with a devilishly charming grin, always happy, and always ready for mischief. Sherry and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Fly high, Cousin, all our dear ones wait in Heaven to welcome you.
