

Charles William Fannin

July 25, 1950 - April 12, 2018

Charles William Fannin passed away peacefully on April 12 with his wife of 32 years, Deborah, by his side after enduring a short but brave struggle with cancer.

Since 1984, Chuck and his wife operated Fannin Remodeling, a firm well known in the greater Toledo area and that garnered the 2007 BBB Torch Award, was designated a Big 50 Remodeler in 1990 by Remodeling Magazine and was featured in the publication on several occasions. Chuck was once voted National Remodeler of the Month and won many local awards from The Home Builders Association of Greater Toledo, including Remodeler of Year.

In his free time, Chuck volunteered over the years with several local organizations including: The Toledo Home Remodelers Association, The Homebuilders of Greater Toledo, and the Penta County Board of Education. He also served as Chairman of the City of Toledo Board of Controls for 10 years, was a Boy Scout Assistant Leader of Troop 252/St. Patrick's of Heatherdowns, and was President of the St. John's Jesuit Father's Club, where his son was a student at the time. Chuck was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church of Toledo.
