“ When I was a kid I remember her baking cakes, her famous macaroni salad, her and Uncle Ben taking us to baseball games and hockey games, swimming, trick or treating, going to Luna pier for the dances, out to eat at chi chis restaurant, Friday night pizza and movies. I don’t know a life without her in it. She was there for every birthday party, every holiday, every event. Thank you Aunt Cheryl for your love and support. I will miss you dearly.
Love,
