“ We remember well Colleen from our youth when she lived on Columbus St. in North Toledo. She went to St. Michael's grade school on Chase St. with our sister Carolyn Stapleton and then on to Central Catholic High School. Those were wonderful days. Rest in peace Colleen. Eileen (Stapleton) Szabo and Suzie Stapleton.

“ I was blessed to be part of the Valleywood Crew. My fondest memories are of both Colleen and Joe. There was many kitchen visits. They both provided support and laughter to my single mom when she needed it and laughter, love and wisdom when I needed it. Joe always, with coffee in hand, came to my rescue to help start my old car on school mornings. I remember always turning to Colleen in my teens when I needed some, sometimes harsh, advice. But, she was always there. They say it takes a Village and I was blessed with them and their large family. When Colleen moved to FL, she always made the time to meet up with me no matter the circumstances. That bright smile, sometimes harsh advice and friendship will always be in my heart forever. Until we meet again "Mom".
