Lawn care and snow plowing were his passion. He owned C & D for 34 years, he couldn't wait for the first snow fall every year. Corey's all-time favorite activity was hanging out with his grandson Vincent, his little sidekick, who gave him the title of Bapa.

“ I remember when Corey was born. April 1, 1969. As the story goes; my mom, Judy, went to the hospital to deliver my brother Chris. As she rolled past one of the rooms, mom looks in and shouts out, “Deloris?” It turns out Deloris was there to deliver Corey. Chris and Corey were like twin brothers from other mothers. I will always remember Corey had no fear as a young boy: Jumping off the high dive, by the age of three, driving the Quarry tractors by age six, and running across the beach faster than the Road Runner. May Corey’s memory be eternal. Love, Lori (Doniere) Kaloger “Let’s Go Steelers”.

I have just learned of Corey's passing and wish to extend my sincere sympathies to his wife, children, and bothers and sisters. Growing up on Albon Road with the Griss family and spending so much time at the quarry was a highlight of my youth. Corey was always present, full of fun and ambition. I will always remember his joyful laugh and energetic spirit. I am sorry I learned of his death after the funeral, which I wouldn't have missed. Eternal Rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may Perpetual Light shine upon him. Dan McCartney
