“ Uncle Harv & Aunt Si were Dale's Godparents and my parents. Thankfully, my Dad is the one of Uncle Gil's siblings we are still blessed to have with us. Unfortunately it would be difficult for him to attend the funeral, but he sends his Love and Prayers to all of Dale's family & friends.

My Mom always had a special place in her heart for Dale! And he always made an effort to find her at every family gathering so he could spend a little time with her. There were so many of us cousins, but Dale was always the one you could count on to show up for family! We have had too many funerals to count, but Dale's smiling face was there! Although we are "cousins by the dozens" (as my Mom so affectionately said) we have all been blessed with that family bond. Our parents made sure that when we were all growing up we knew each other & visited family. We will all forever have that connection and feel the loss of yet another one of our beloved family members.

Rest in peace, Dale. You will be missed.
