“ Kathy: In this age of so-called instant news, I was astounded to just find out today of Dave's passing. I was taken aback that I was not aware of this prior to today, because I certainly would have been there to tell you how much I really admired Dave as a mentor and teacher early on during my career. He could be a very difficult to read sometimes, which sort of kept me on my toes, but at the end of the day, he helped me to learn by encouraging me to think more deeply about the work I was doing which stayed with me for the rest of my life. I will never forget how his influence impacted my career.

I was always happy to see both of you when I ran into you at the symphony. I hope you will have an opportunity to read this, as I know it is so late, but I wanted to pass along my deepest sympathies to you and your family. May God continue to bless you and yours.

*Most graciously,

We were so sorry to hear about the death of Dave--a gentle, considerate and loving man. We had so many good times with him and he truly was a good friend. So many memories with him--including that great cruise that we did so much laughing on and sharing of fun things.
