“ one thing I remember about David was that one day after me and Danny was just married David and Angie taught us how it was to work hard we went to work in the tomatoes for some reason that morning David noticed I was eating jalapenos so while we were working he was ahead of me and Angie and then next thing I know he was singing a song about "Sherry was eating jalapeno for breakfast this morning." So funny because he would sing in English then in Spanish. Then laugh out loud ... He was always there for his family thought the good and tough times .. Sorry for your loss everyone you all are strong because he was there for you all ...

“ I'll never forget the first time I met him. He said to me ' Is she giving you any trouble ' pointing to Mary. I said ' As long as I do everything she tells me, it's all good '. He rolled his shoulders back, looked me up and down in that way he does; then says ' Tony! (still looking me up and down) I like you! Flashing that great big smile of his. Since that day, there would never be a time that he wouldn't stop me or call me over every time he saw me. The meet would always start with... ' Tony! Let me tell you something ' and always end with the both of us having a good belly laugh!

I will truly miss the laughs we shared. My heart breaks for his family who loved him so much! You are all in my heart and prayers.
