“ I am front desk supervisor where he resided. He was a man who didn't smile much, very serious love but deep inside a good heart, loving person. I am glad I was able to talk and share prayer with him. I would call him Mr. Willard and he didn't like that, he said call me cowboy. To the family you all are in my prayers and he will forever be remembered. Although he is gone from this world but remember all the precious memories

“ My condolences to Dennis's family. I remember you all fondly from our childhood. Dennis I probably knew the best as he was closest to me in age. Grandma Willard brought him camping with us several times.
