“ *Tracy,
All my childhood memories include you and your family and my heart is breaking for you.
The past six months I've watched you take full responsibility for your moms care and making sure she had everything she needed. As her health started to fail, you "moved" into the her room and never left her side. I know your grateful for all those special moments you two shared. An unbreakable mother~ daughter bond. I hope you find comfort in knowing she is with your dad and finally happy and pain free again. Fly High Diane,I love you. Xoxo Jana* “ Diane, I was 10 or 11 when you and Jim moved in next door. Jim and my dad became hunting buddies and you and mom became dear friends. That was over 40 years ago! All the laughs and tears made our families close. I began babysitting for you when the twins came! With 5 kids, I learned a lot very quickly! I should've wrote a book " The Adventures in Babysitting the Kids next Door!" There was never a dull moment at your house! I loved every minute! My prayers are with you all....I believe in my heart that Jim's been waiting patiently for you to join him in Heaven. May God wrap his arms around you both.

Tracy, Jamie, Donny, Matt and Marty, you guys were like a little sister and little brothers to us. Hold each other close....love each other....and remember all the great times you have had together as a family.

*Love you all,
Lisa*

Diane and I were two of sixty-four cousins in the J. R. Killen clan and more than that we were good friends. We enjoyed our times together which were too infrequent and too short. We loved the challenge of "beating each other" at Hearts or Spades or debating politics. The road trips with our spouses, cousins and Uncle Woody were something to talk about, we really had some times together. Rest in peace dear cousin until we meet again.
