“ Dear Lynn and family, Please accept our prayers and sympathies for the loss of Don. May he enjoy eternal rest. I didn't see Don often, but whenever I did, he was wearing a huge smile. It always amazed me how two people, each suffering tragic losses, could come together and continue to sow seeds of happiness and joy with everyone they met. Surely Jim and Rosemary were in on this legacy somehow.

“ So happy Don and my Aunt Sue found each other. They were such a cute couple, and so obviously adored each other! We didn't see them often, but always enjoyed our visits. My husband especially enjoyed talking with Don about planes and his WWII experiences.
