“ I remember meeting Don and Ruth at the pharmacy, where I became more than their pharmacist, but a personal friend. Always time for a hug from both. I used to call them "Mom" and "Dad", as my parents were both gone. We had a very special relationship and it was always a treat to see them both. I send all of my love and sympathy to the family. I will miss him. I will always be there for Ruth. I know there is a hole in her heart right now and I send up prayers for her and for the whole family. Just remember that he is free from hardship now, as he is surely with Our Lord. God bless you all. Suzen

That was a beautiful video. I loved the "swing" music. It brought back wonderful memories of my own parents.
