“ Don, you will be missed just for being you. You were always there, when needed and loved to tease anyone. All the nieces and nephews knew that you would be there to depend on, Dawn even asked for you to be her God Father You have joined a lot of people that are missed, so we know they will show you the way and let it be a comfort for all your family and friends to know that you no longer are in pain. Please help us, remember all the good times and work through the pain we all feel with your loss.

Don left this world and we all are full of sorrow, every time we remember him we will think about the wonderful moments we shared with him. He was a wonderful grandfather! Remember he is still with you, he will be in the wind blowing, the diamond glitz on the snow, he is the sunlight and the rain that comes from the heavens. He is the star shining so brightly, he'll be in the clouds drifting by.
