“ I wish i could have known you in the good ole days. I've heard so many stories. So many people have loved you. So many memories shared. I believe that you are in heaven with the loved ones that have gone before you. In knowing your family, it is obvious the wonderful parent, and friend that you were. I am glad that you are in peace now. Finally able to remember all the happy times and tobe free of pain.
We will all miss you. God is good, and has taken you in his hands now. Until we all are together again...peace and beauty to you. And, I know you will be busy watching over all of us.##imported-begin##Chris##imported-end##

“ My buddy Donna J. you will forever be in my heart. The days I kept you from going out the front door of the nursing home and how you would stand there, cross your arms, give me that dirty little look and then just bust out laughing.....how ornery you were. Valentines Day 2008 will always be a special day for me, when Deb walked you down the hall and you grabbed me to have your pictures taken with me. I will treasure that picture always.....you will always have a special place in my heart....rest now sweet friend for now there is no more pain and no more confusion.##imported-begin##Debbie Clark dclark2970@gmail.com##imported-end##

“ Mom words can express enough as to how wonderful you were. Everyone should have a Mom like you. You were a mother first and in our later years ---you were a best friend to each of us. I have had so many wonderful, FUN times with you----just going everyday or 4-5 days a week and just take a drive on one of our 'excursions' --- 'wherever the car takes us' we used to say !! I love you with all my heart and though we are sad for our loss, we are happy for your gain in heaven!!! Until we see each other again, good-bye for now Mom, with love!!!##imported-begin##Debbie##imported-end##

“ Karen & Family, I'm very sorry for your loss. Your Mother was a real sweetheart and she made the best crepes I ever had. I used to get a kick out of her whenever she used that "fork" thing to scratch her head. Your loss is Heavens gain...Love you B...##imported-begin##Belen Gonzalez##imported-end##
