“ Sue, Joe and Family,
Although I don't recall meeting your Mother, she sounded like a precious woman. We are very sorry to hear of her passing. How nice you (Sue) and your sister have been able to be with her these last few months as she prepared to leave this earth. I'll bet Karl was waiting with open arms to hug his Grandma in heaven.
Our prayers are with you all.
Love,

“ Dear Susan and Kathryn,

Please accept the condolences of myself and the Black Swamp Hosta and Daylily Society. I met your mother as she was a member and through conversations with her, I discovered she knew my neighbors, Louis and June Johnson. I remember visiting your mother's garden and how we sat outside and talked about gardening issues.

Sincerely,
