“ Dorothy was an amazing lady, always wanting to participate in every activity, rather it be baking, crafts or helping decorate for Happy Hour. But sometimes she liked her alone time reading! Forever will miss her contagious laugh.

“ Dorothy was my most faithful participant in activities. She always came with a smile and a LAUGH. I knew I could count on her to help me get things together last minute as we used her walker to hold a lot of supplies when needed lol. There was never a time where she was unwilling or not helping. You will be missed Ms. Dorothy! We thank your family for trusting us with your care and smile, much love.

Your smile would welcome even the biggest grump to smile. Whether happy or out-of-sorts you were elated to see those you loved and adored. You enjoyed your life everyday. You were always up for cards, a walk, a craft and many a distraction from you increasing confusion. Little did you know how much you gave to others just simply by being you! Thank you for engaging with me and warming my heart. His arms are open! I can only imagine your glee.
