

Dorothy Esther Gerschultz

August 16, 1914 - April 16, 2017

Dorothy E. Gerschultz, age 102 of Toledo, passed away peacefully on Easter Sunday, April 16, 2017.

She was born to William and Ollie (Brown) Wisda on August 16, 1914. She married Adam F. Gerschultz in November of 1935, of this union, they had 6 children. While raising her children, she did many things to help others, including helping neighbors and friends washing clothes, cleaning, sewing and babysitting. Dorothy was always busy, she enjoyed reading, entertaining, gardening, family gatherings and was very close with her younger sister, Rosemary. She enjoyed traveling all over the country, always staying active with her family. She spent a lot of time, many weeks, several times a year, visiting with all her grandchildren, playing games, cooking, baking, sewing, attending their events and making other specialty items for them. She treasured all of them and they especially admired their grandmother in return. Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Kenneth Wisda; sisters, Loretta Neff and Verna Mae Wisda; son-in-laws, Jeremiah J. Thompson, Sr. and Bernard Wallace. She is survived by her children, Shirley Thompson, James (Joyce) Gerschultz of Eldorado Hills, CA, Nancy (Jerry) Mayer, Rosemary Wallace of Redford, MI, David (Sandra) of Scottsdale, AZ and Richard (Margaret) Gerschultz; 15 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; sister, Rosemary Justinger of Defiance, OH, as well as, many nieces and nephews.

“ *Aunt Dorothy,
A very special "lady". I always loved and looked forward to spend time each summer at her house. She never ceased to amaze me.
Will miss her smiling face and card games.
Love you always!
