“ As my Godmother, Aunt Dorothy now has a direct line to him. I thank her and Uncle Dan for all they have afforded me in life. Learning how to debate my Dad and occasionally coming out on top. Teaching me crossword puzzle clues, and her lasting dedication to our wildlife has enriched my life with knowledge I won't soon forget. I know you and Dad are looking down on us right now, probably smiling and laughing at me thinking that somehow I outsmarted you. I love you and will forever be in your gratitude.

“ My U. Dan and A. Dorothy. Our families were together a lot. At each others homes, parties, graduations, etc. A. Dorothy, I Love you so much. You were Fun, Loving, and Caring. You treated my Mom like a sister instead of a sister-in-law. We both liked flowers and gardening. I am going to miss your sweet smile. Tell my Daddy I said Hi and Love and Miss Him. Thank You for being in my Life. Spread your Angel Wings and protect your Love ones. I will Miss you.

“ I met Dorothy in September of 1985. We bought the house next door to her and Dan. She walked over the day we moved in to say "hi", Im Dorothy. The beginning of a 29 year friendship. We had so much in common but foremost she was like a 2nd Mom to me. We spent numerous hours sitting together feeling the warmth of the day, long into evening hours enjoying nature and subjects to numerous to mention. Dorothy was strong in her faith; throughout her illness she put herself in God's hands. She now sits at the knee of her Savior, in peace.

Though I will miss her terribly, the loss of ones we love must be tolerated. With faith and strength we move forward. When the grief has subdued, we turn to beautiful memories, many of which people leave unknowingly...My deepest sympathy to the entire family.
