“ I am shocked to read of Ed's death. He was my neighbor for 10 years. I moved from Waterside last September and haven't talked to any since. I have been travelling and was at Normandy in April where I picked up some rocks and sand to bring back for Normandy veterans.

There were many nice times with Ed as a neighbor. I hope you all are well. He was a wonderful man and will be missed.

I worked for Ed when he was Director of Taxes at the Carling Brewing Company in Cleveland. Ed was extremely smart, fair and kind. He was the best boss I ever had. I have kept in touch with him in the 40 years since we both left Carling and I have enjoyed our friendship and will miss him greatly. Sincerely, Bruce Kloppman
