“FAST EDDIE! That's what Joe said everyone called you and so that's what I called you too! Diane summed you up perfectly. You were everyone's cheerleader. I have a feeling up in heaven you will continue to lead us. You listened to us when we built our house over 17 years ago giving us advice saying, "Don't worry, you will grow into it." And we did, with two kids and all of their worldly possessions..... We did. You were there for us finding your way to our house down those dark country back roads when we needed you in the middle of the night. You made it there in "FAST EDDIE" record time to watch Mackenzie while she was asleep in her bed until my Mom & Dad could get there to relieve you. That was in the early morning hour around 2:00 a.m. when Cameron was coming into this world and I asked Joe. " Now who would be up this time of night and could be with Mackenzie while we went to the hospital?" YOU WERE. You were the first person I thought of in that precious moment.. I always said, " Joe, if we build our home across these railroad tracks by St. Lukes, I know either we are or someone else is going to need to get across them in an emergency.... and sure enough that time had come but Dad made it just in time as I was standing at the window waiting for him with my What to Expect When Expecting book in my hand frantically reading "what to expect". You and Mom were there for the birth of Mackenzie, birthday parties, cook outs, chicken soup when we were sick, your famous Wendy's Chili you perfected and many other family events. I know my Dad always looked forward to seeing you at our kid's birthday parties to chat in your ears for hours about the good ole' days at L.O.F. a.k.a Libbey Owens Ford Co. I'm gonna miss you FAST EDDIE, The Christmases with the movie Christmas Story playing on the television non stop every Christmas and the Sunday afternoons with the Nascar races on when we stopped by Have a grasshopper for me FAST EDDIE! You made me the very first one I had ever had and it was awesome! I will meet you some day and have another one with you! Promise! Love you, Deb P.S. I am sorry I did not share these thoughts with everyone last night. I regret it. I think I am a better wirtter than speech maker. I hope you can see this.

“ My sincere condolences, Judy, to you and to your family. I have not seen you much lately because I live so far away, One of my earliest memories of Ed was when our family went boating with Ed in what had to be his first boat. It was in about 1952 at the Maple street landing in Perrysburg..Again my sincere condolences. Say Hi to Vera and Raymond for me.

“ Hi, my name is Morgen(one of the grandchildren), he was a great friend. Some of our best memories were going to Mackinaw, which is in Michigan. It doesn't seem bad if it doesn't happen to anyone in your family, but when it does, it's a lot worse than it sounds. I have been crying every day since the 2nd. It's sad to see someone you love go, but at least they are in a better place.
