

Eileen "Lee" Mattoni

February 26, 1935 - July 13, 2017

Eileen D. Mattoni, of Maumee, passed away on July 13, 2017 after battling an illness for the last few months.

She began her career working at Jacobsen's where she was a familiar face in their "Better Dress Wear" department and then later worked as a model for Coco Chanel and Ralph Lauren. Lee was an animal lover and enjoyed cooking for the family. She was an avid supporter of Rocky's Body shop, the family business, since 1967 and now owned by her son, Dean.

Lee was preceded in death by her parents; brother, John (Fay) Walsh and sister, Kathleen Petrocchi. She is survived by her loving husband of 50 years, Rocky; sons, Michael and Dean (Nikki); grandchildren, Deanna and Andrea and many nieces, nephews, cousins and great friends.

According to Lee's wishes, there will be no visitation or services. Memorials may take the form of contributions to the Toledo Humane Society. Please view and sign our online "guest registry" at CoyleFuneralHome.com

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family. Never had the pleasure of meeting her but from how her grandchildren spoke of her she must of been a remarkable woman.

May she rest in His peace and may He give you all strength during this time.

“ To Lee's family I extend my sincerest sympathy. Lee was a special lady, always a pleasure to serve as her waitress, bartender at different establishments in the area, even after i left the restaurant biz, our paths would cross , giving each other a hug and a smile. God has gained another angel, i will always think of her with fondness... Sincerely, Wendy
