“Izze” was one of my co-workers at Fleeger's Hdw. She was a great asset in creating a helpful, friendly experience for all who came to her check out space. We renewed our friendship during my visits to the nursing home as part of the St. Pat's scripture and communion team. Until recently she joined in our Monday morning service. Last Monday morning we prayed over her for her time was near. For the past three years, despite her physical condition and pain she kept up her spirits smiling, joking, accepting. Accepting her situation with grace was one of her many gifts. I am thankful for knowing her. If I was not out of town I would be with you celebrating her life.

“I had the pleasure of working with Liz here in the Records Office. Great memories of Liz still are spoken/shared here. Most funny story is when Liz dressed as Big Bird for a day. Yes that's right The Sesame Street Big Bird character!! Her small body frame "carried" the costume well. Prayers to the family. May she sing with the Angels~ Julie East
