October 27, 1916 - January 26, 2008

Elizabeth "Betty" Claire Abodeely, 91, of Phoenix, AZ, passed away peacefully at home on Jan. 26, 2008. Betty was born on Oct. 27, 1916 in Dayton, OH to Albert J. and Wilba Hieber, moving to Toledo soon after. Betty worked at City Loan and U.S. Standard Sign, but her best efforts went into creating a loving family with her husband of 48 years, Bob Abodeely.

Lifelong parishioner of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Toledo, Betty was active in many aspects of the church and school she attended as a child.

Moving to Phoenix after Bob's death, Betty found comfort in the community of St. Francis Xavier Parish by volunteering in the Marian Shop, sewing, and knitting with St. Ann's Guild, and being a member of the Rosary Group where she made many wonderful new friends.

Betty is preceded in death by her parents, her sister Mary Jane Harris, brother Jack Hieber, and is reunited with her husband Bob, who passed away in 1998.

She is survived by daughters, Marybeth Abodeely, and Carol (Bill) Perrin of Phoenix, and Nancy (Garry) Navarre of Indianapolis, IN; grandchildren Emily (Dan) Kingston, Katie Perrin, Taylor and Morgan Alexandra Navarre, and great-grandchildren, Kaitlyn and Dylan Kingston.
