“ Mrs Kiger was such a kind soul. She loved, lived, and talked about her Catholic faith quite often. Whenever I saw her, she was laughing! She and I were always cracking each other up! I told Tim earlier that her absence will hit me hard once pool weather gets here. That's when I saw her the most...at Shell and Tim's pool. She was always sipping on a beer and watching everything and everyone around her. Even if it was 90 degrees out, she would still sit there in her capri pants and sweater! Going forward, at every Ladies Day, we will do a toast in her memory. Here's to you, Mrs Kiger! I will certainly miss you. Lots of love, Jennifer and Steve Sam and Rach
