

Evalyne R. Figmaka Nowak

March 9, 1920 - January 31, 2014

Evalyne R Figmaka Nowak born March 9, 1920 to Frank and Sophia (Jankowski) Figmaka peacefully entered eternal life January 31, 2014. Evalyne (Evie) was member of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and over her many years had been active in a number of organizations among those; The Toledo Zoo, Maumee River Yacht Club, Toledo Mud Hens Booster Club, The Toledo Police Post. An accomplished watercolor artist Evie continued to paint and take lessons well into her eighties. But her favorite activity until the end was her weekly bus trips to the Detroit Casinos!

Preceded in death by her husband, Leon Nowak, parents, and brothers Donald and Robert Figmaka, Evie will be remembered fondly by cousins, Shirley Weaver, (Cypress, CA), Nancy Williams (Richfield, FL), sister-in-law Mabel Meagher Figmaka, and nephew Jeffrey (Ann Figmaka). Additionally is survived by many friends and extended family, nephews Pat Dugan, John (Sharon) Figmaka, Joel (Tonya) Figmaka, close friends Helen Dryer as well as her best friends Katherine (Peggy) Herr (Eugene, WA) and Ann Figmaka.

Evie donated her body to the University of Toledo Medical Center, in hopes of helping others in the future. Friends will be received at the Historic Church of St Patrick, February 6, 2014 at 5:00p.m., with a memorial mass celebrated at 6:00p.m. Those planning expressions of sympathy may wish to consider Honor Flight of Northwest Ohio, Hospice of Northwest Ohio, or The ASPCA. Jeffrey & Ann would like to thank Hospice of Northwest Ohio for their help and support during this time, as well as the staff of St Luke's Hospital. Thank you all very much
