

Felicia E. Skow

October 7, 1952 - November 14, 2013

Felicia E. Skow passed peacefully on November 14, 2013, at her home with her daughters by her side. Born Felicia E. Jagodzinski on October 7, 1952, in Toledo, Ohio, Felicia was 61 years old. Felicia's parents, Felix and Helen, had a large, boisterous, and fun-loving family. She married William ("Bill") Skow in 1979, and the pair lived in Washington, D.C. before returning to spend their lives in Toledo to raise their family and serve their hometown.

An avid reader with an insatiable curiosity, sharp wit, and generous spirit, Felicia freely gave her time to others, volunteering for children's and community activities, caring for her family members, and assisting many friends through difficult circumstances.

A two-time breast cancer survivor, Felicia is survived by her daughters Sarah (Jason) and Sasha (Bobby), grandson Liam, brother Jim, sisters Mary, Dolores, and Eleanor, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends. Felicia is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 30 years, the Honorable William J. Skow, her parents Helen and Felix, her brothers John, Frank, and Felix, and her sister Karen.

Friends may visit at the Coyle Funeral Home; 1770 S Reynolds Rd on Tuesday November 19, 2013 from 4-7 p.m. where a sharing of memories will be held starting at 6:30 pm. Interment will be private.

The family thanks the wonderful caregivers at Hospice of Northwest Ohio. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to Hospice of Northwest Ohio, American Cancer Society, and the American Red Cross.

“ Sarah, Sasha, Jason and Bobby,

I am sorry that in my last post I did not have Jason listed. I know that he loved your mom as much as everyone else and she loved him just as much. She would have been so pleased to know that he was playing his music for her at the service. Your mom was an amazing person and a wonderful friend. Again I will miss very, very much

Love you all

“ Dear Skow Family and Friends,

I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.

“ Dearest Sarah,

I will always remember and appreciate the Thanksgiving Felicia invited me to... delicious food and the best company anyone could ask. She was kind-hearted with a great sense of humor. She will be missed. Love to you, Sasha, Bobby, Liam and Jason.

“ Dear Sarah and Sasha,

My sincerest sympathy on the loss of your mother. She was an amazing volunteer and a frequent presence at Old Orchard when you were students there. I always remember her as being happy and caring about everyone. She loved you both dearly and only wanted the best for you. You made her proud. You will be in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time and through the coming holidays.
