Sunset and evening star and one clear call for me!
and may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems to sleep, To full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home/
Twilight and evening bell and after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell when I embark for tho' for out our borne of time and place, The flood may bare me far I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

“ We always loved talking to Frances at Alexis Gardens. She was so pleasant and fun to be with. Even with her lack of vision, she had an ability to know everything that was going on. She loved her family very much and I know that you will all miss her dearly. Our prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Doug & Carol Laumann##imported-end##
